"Mission Accomplished"

An Absolute Delight

Let me congratulate you on the occasion of your graduation from West Side High School. You have reached a milestone in both your personal and academic life. Primarily, this is a tremendous personal accomplishment. It shows that you have what it takes to stick with something and see it through. It means that you understand the importance of doing your personal best. Academically, you have shown that you know the importance of education. You've placed yourselves in a position to pursue and succeed at your post secondary endeavors. I implore each of you to reach for the moon and settle for nothing less than the stars. Please remember that learning is a life long process – for as long as you live there is something to learn. Learn it! Achieve! Just simply do it! After you've done all of that, you are obligated to share it by giving back to your community.

Please know that you are the future of the world. Mankind is placing a lot in your hands. You are the ones who will solve global issues – war, poverty, famine, health, etc. You are the ones who will make this world a better place in which to live and raise the next generation of scholars. I have every confidence that the world is being placed in very competent hands.
